

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH

For What It's Worth (FWIW) is a service for members of the Oklahoma Homebuyer Education Association. We welcome your responses or other information you would like to share with us. Send items to Tricia Auberle at HomebuyerEd@okacaa.org

What you can do to support OHEA. Aside from paying your membership, there are several things you can do to help support this association. Each year the Federal Home Loan Bank of Topeka asks us to report on the impact of our activities. Specifically they want to see:

- Schedules of upcoming workshops
- Aggregated demographic data of workshop participants
- Info on home purchases.

This data is invaluable to our relationship with our funder. We are very grateful to those of you who have reported some or all of it in the past. We would appreciate receiving it from more of you in the future. You can even report One-on-one's and internet-based clients. Contact me for details, report forms, questions or concerns.

Don't forget to pay your dues. Member services will cease and certifications will be suspended if dues are not received by March 30. Tick tock! Your renewal notice was sent to the same address as this issue, so if you missed it look in your email folders, or contact us for another notice at ahnmod@okacaa.org. Nineteen percent of last year's members have renewed, so far, and more renewals arrive daily.

2nd Request: We are looking for a few Certified Homebuyer Education Professionals to help present OHEA train-the-trainer and continuing education events. OHEA Continuing Education Credit is available for your preparation and training time. Please contact homebuyerred@okacaa.org if you are interested in participating. Consult the OHEA Events Schedule for dates.

Term of the Month: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) – an independent regulatory agency created by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform Act of 2010 to which the administration of regulations resulting from 20 different consumer protection statutes was transferred. Banks, credit unions, and mortgage companies are among those under CFPB jurisdiction.
