

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH

For What It's Worth (FWIW) is a service for members of the Oklahoma Homebuyer Education Association. We welcome your responses or other information you would like to share with us. Send items to Tricia Auberle at HomebuyerEd@okacaa.org

Thanks to those who have provided homebuyer education workshop schedules. Please continue to provide schedules as you put them on the calendar. We will include them in the workshop schedule on the OHEA website.

The Alliance for Economic Inclusion for Northeastern Oklahoma will hold its quarterly meeting March 5th at Oklahoma State University North Hall beginning with breakfast at 8:30. The program is focused on moving the unbanked to mainstream banking and will conclude by 11:00. Attendees may earn 1.5 hours toward OHEA continuing education requirements, provided documentation of attendance is provided. Additional information on the event is available from Gloria Reynolds at glreynolds@fdic.gov

HUD Exchange. I created an account on HUD Exchange in hopes of finding online courses that would satisfy continuing education requirements for CHEPs. The results were very disappointing. Among the pages and pages of listings I found only a couple of webinars on mortgage financing that would apply. I did, however, indicate my experience with HUD was in the area of the HOME program, possibly a limiting factor. Please let me know if you have better luck finding courses.

E-classroom Express is a NeighborWorks online series of 90-minute webinars offered at $79 each. The offerings include a series intended to prepare you for the HUD certification exam. Learn more at <http://www.neighborworks.org/Training-Services/Training-Professional-Development/Online-Learning/eClassroom-Express> National Community Reinvestment Coalition also offers preparatory classes and exam practice sessions for the HUD certification.
