

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH

For What It's Worth (FWIW) is a service for members of the Oklahoma Homebuyer Education Association. We welcome your responses or other information you would like to share with us. Send items to Tricia Auberle at HomebuyerEd@okacaa.org

Are you having problems meeting continuing education requirements? You can re-certify by Advanced Placement, a process whereby you study, retake the test, and then attend a one-day update class. We have the nucleus of a group, so contact me soon if you would like to participate. The cost is $130 for OHEA members. Email me at homebuyerred@okacaa.org.

Grants for financial literacy events. The Oklahoma JumpStart Coalition is providing grant funding for organizations to host an event promoting financial literacy, preferably during JumpStart Your Money Week (April 19-25, 2015). Grants will be awarded for the cost of the event up to $1,000. Schools, higher education institutions, and nonprofit organizations are eligible to apply. Interested applicants can visit www.OklahomaJumpstart.org to learn more and to download the application packet. Completed applications should be returned to Brent Rempe, JumpStart Treasurer, at brentr@weokie.org or by fax at 405.787.6167 at least four weeks in advance of the event.

E-classroom Express is a NeighborWorks online series of 90-minute webinars offered at $79 each. The offerings include a series intended to prepare you for the HUD certification exam. Learn more at <http://www.neighborworks.org/Training-Services/Training-Professional-Development/Online-Learning/eClassroom-Express> National Community Reinvestment Coalition also offers preparatory classes and exam practice sessions for the HUD certification. Find information about them at www.ncrc.org
