

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH

For What It's Worth (FWIW) is a service for members of the Oklahoma Homebuyer Education Association. We welcome your responses or other information you would like to share with us. Send items to Tricia Auberle at HomebuyerEd@okacaa.org

Last issue. This is the last issue of For What It's Worth for anyone that has not paid their 2016 dues or has not contacted me about their dues payment status. That means there are three of you to whom we are saying goodbye – one who is dropping membership and two who have not responded. We will be happy to have you back should circumstances change.

This is also the last issue of For What It's Worth to be distributed through Yahoo groups. Make sure homebuyerred@okacaa.org and oahnmod@okacaa.org are on your Safe Senders and Safe Recipients Lists to avoid disruption of services.

Housing Summit. Our good friends at Oklahoma Housing Finance Agency are holding their triennial Housing Summit April 14 from 7:30 – 4:00 at the Moore Norman Technology Center. Certified Homebuyer Education Professionals participating should attend the session titled "Opening Doors to Homeownership" for 1 hour of OHEA continuing education credit.

Free webinars. The Counselors Corner is an internet site with resources for those of us doing housing counseling, foreclosure counseling, and financial capability counseling. The site has tutorials and pod casts related to housing and financial education counseling. The pod casts are too short for continuing education credits, but the webinars will be acceptable. (I've got an email into them to determine how long the tutorials are.)

Membership is free and the founder has told me she is committed to providing all webinars this year for free. Webinars scheduled at this time include

March 24, 1:00 – 3:00 pm CDT	Recovery After Foreclosure
April 12, 1:00 – 2:00 pm CDT	TRID: Post-Effective Date Questions and Guidance
April 21, 1:00 – 3:00 pm CDT	Fair Housing Law and Requirements

You can find the site at www.thecounselorscorner.net.
